

À la mémoire de Sacha pour qui...

If the wind (2016)

We're on Thursday, & I can't turn it off, turn it off, turn off my heart...
We're on Thursday, & I can't turn it off, turn it off, turn off my heart...

Today I am weak
And I can hide my weakness
So perfectly that you can't see
What I feel when it's you that I see

I'm not a liar
Cause I don't tell what I feel
In that dark fire of being what I wanna be

Refrain

No, my deep sorrow ain't no good for anyone
And I'll keep you from this blow anyhow

The day before
I left you in town
All I dreamed for
Was to keep you in my arms

But time has come
As it comes everytime
Hurting and draining my heart blowing and breaking my hopes

Some say
That to be alone is be free
And I can't blame them
'Cause it's all I wanna be

But if the wind,
Brings this song to your ears,
And if this song,
Finds a way to your heart,
And if your heart,
Your whole body, feels like that,
Hear me, Baby
With you, I wanna be free every night.
