We hear him coming up from a distance,
the first-class ball-busting loudmouth.

His big mouth ain't just full of spit,
many many words are coming out,
and every single person he hits with gets so upset they wanna shout !

Verse 3 :

Bias is bad, so lets give it a try to have a lil' talk with that man passing by.
I wish I could have said that it was possible
but I confess it must be incurable, try it with any human being he'll cut 'em off like a fuckin' bell ring !

Chorus 3 : Don't you hear me, don't you hear me ?
Man, hush. Hush, man, hush !

Verse 4 :

You speak so loud, now, do you even care ?
No offense so far but it's getting there :
There is no point discussing with you
I try to avoid it everyday, it's true.

Chorus 4 : Don't you hear me, don't you hear me ?
Man, hush. Hush, man, hush !
Wohoo ohohohoooh yeah
Don't you hear me, don't you hear me ?

PONT :

You talk so much that your words ain't got no value no more,
You talk so much you don't even need to knock on the door,
You talk so much my head is getting sore,
You talk so much I can't stand you anymore !!!
